

Bruce Haney

November 7, 1956 - February 20, 2017

Bruce Haney was born in Chicago, Illinois on November 7th 1956 to the union of Jerry and Marion Haney and a robust family of 19 children: 8 girls and 11 boys! Baptized as a young man at the age of 16, he attended Fenger High School before studying the Culinary Arts at Le Cordon Bleu. His passion for cuisine led him to become an exemplary chef at the luxurious Biasette's restaurant where he plied his chosen craft for many years. It was also here where he met the love of his life, future wife Rose Kelly.

Bruce loved Rose and his family immensely and was also quite fond of cooking, dancing, sharing stories and gambling. More of his greatest joys came from barbecuing, playing with his grandchildren, and watching television – especially Rifle Man and the Andy Griffith Show.

He leaves to this world his beloved wife of nearly 30 years Rose, treasured daughters Ashley, Tamika and Clarissa, 3 brothers, 5 sisters and numerous stepchildren, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and many other fortunate loved ones.

Those who knew Bruce Haney dearly would not hesitate to say how he was a one-of-a-kind person; a handy man who always fixed things around the house; an endearing spirit never too shy from helping others; a 5-star chef; and an excellent father, brother, grandfather, uncle, grand uncle and even a great-great uncle.

While those of us who are left to remember him feel grief over his passing on, we must take solace in knowing that to grieve is the last act of love that we can give to those who have touched our hearts. Where there is deep grief, there was great love. Bruce Haney will forever be missed, and will never be forgotten.

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be, so he put his arms around you and whispered, "Come to Me."
