

Carlana Cobb

September 30, 1929 - June 11, 2018

Carlana Cobb, the delightful daughter and one of 14 children of William Harrison Bruce and Ellna Raynor Bruce. She was born on September 30, 1929 in Scott, Arkansas. She grew up in North Little Rock, Arkansas, educated through the public school system and graduating from Pulaski High School on May 12, 1945.

Carlana met and united in holy matrimony, the love of her life, Freddie Cobb on December 18, 1949. This love blossomed and she later gave birth to two beautiful children Lynda and Clark before she moved to Chicago, Illinois. Then two more, Jeff and Elrico, which she and her husband Fred loved and adored dearly. She worked as a waitress, a housekeeper, finally attending Nutech School of Beauty which gave her the licensed skills to be one of the better Beauticians on the South Side of Chicago. Everyone who knew Carlana knows that she had a passion for styling hair! Mostly, everyone who got up out of her chair, was definitively pleased and happy to show the finished product of Carlana's working her wonders! She was a true artist. She also had love and talent for sewing, knitting, crocheting, quilting, cooking and gardening just to name a few.

Carlana's biggest passion was a love for spiritual things. When Carie Love, one of Jehovah's Witnesses, studied the Bible with her, she immediately exclaimed, "THIS IS THE TRUTH!" She was baptized in July 1962, while attending the Southtown Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses. She later attended Gately Park, Roseland and then Crescent Park Cong. In 1986, she and her husband moved to Decatur, IL attending the Decatur East Congregation there. Her favorite scripture was John 17:3 which says "This means everlasting life, their coming to know you, the only true God, and the one whom you sent, Jesus Christ." Although this was her favorite Bible verse, this was just one of many Bible scriptures she would share with whoever would listen. She just loved, loved, loved the ministry! Her love for Jehovah God and neighbor moved her to regular pioneer and work part time as a crossing guard because of her great love for children. She did so until her health began to fail her. Even in the Nursing home, you would find her sharing some portion of Bible knowledge with staff members and visitors.

On Monday, June 11, 2018, Carlena was overcome from her illness and sadly fell asleep in death. Preceding her in death were her husband of 50+ years, Freddie Cobb; her mother, Ellna Raynor Bruce; her father, Willie H. Bruce; four of her sisters: twin girls Ruth and Ruby Bruce, Oree Bradford and Hazel Lee Brown-Watson; and three of her brothers, Henry, and the twins Jacob and Esau Bruce.

Carlena leaves to cherish her memories her four children: Lynda Portis (R. Kent), Clark Cobb (Barbara), Jeffrey Cobb (Pat) and Elrico Cobb. She is also survived by her siblings: Jeff Bruce, Lemule Bruce (Lillie), Harrison Bruce (Marie), Willie Redd (Silus), Daisy Gibson (Henry) and Gloria Thigpen; 14 smart and beautiful grandchildren, and many great grandchildren; along with nieces, nephews, friends and acquaintances.
