

Daisy Mae Brown Rimpson

May 22, 1931 - April 5, 2016

Daisy Mae Brown Rimpson was born May 22, 1931 in Valdosta, Georgia to Jamie and Willie Mae Holton of Inaha, GA. She was one of seven children born to this union.

On February 16, 1946, Daisy united in marriage to Hollist Brown. They were blessed with eleven children, six girls and five boys. On September 18, 1991, she united in marriage to Sammie L. Rimpson, who proved to be a wonderful provider, father and grandfather.

Daisy attended various churches throughout her youth. Later in life, she began studying the Bible according to John 17:3, "this means everlasting life, their coming to know you, the only true God, and the one whom you sent, Jesus Christ." She dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized her dedication through water baptism on June 29, 2013, becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Daisy was a role model to many and a mother to all. She treated everybody the same and had a heart of GOLD. She was loved by many. Her door was always open to anyone in need; a person you could go to for advice, a meal, or a helping hand.

Her hobbies were dancing and singing which she passed down to her later generations. She also loved cooking, baking, and sewing.

On April 5, 2016, Daisy fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her parents and five siblings, her first husband, Hollist Brown and one son, Clarence Brown.

Daisy leaves to cherish her memories, one brother, Levi Holton (Minnie); two uncles, Levi Frazier (Lillie) and Willie Holton; four sons, Walter E. Brown (Linda), Hollist Brown Jr. (Salena), Kenneth L. Brown (Denise) and Rubin L. Brown; six daughters, Mandy L. Wallace (Henry), Mary L. Daniels (Booker T.), Melvina Brumfield, Willetta Massey, Daisy E. Knox and Arlinda Brown; 38 grandchildren; and a host of great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
