

Elmarie Johnson

February 21, 2016 - October 9, 2016

Elmarie Johnson was born in Brival, Arkansas on February 21, 1927 to Lue Sisson and BW Sisson. At the age of 15, her family relocated to Illinois.

Elmarie had her first child, Minnie Mae Moody born to Douglas Moody, the son of Minnie Hannaford Moody in Brival, AR. Her second child was born in Illinois, and she named him Douglas. She later moved to Chicago, where she met and later married James Connor. She then had a third child, Roscoe. She was a loving wife and mother who cared deeply for her family.

After a careful study of the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses, Elmarie dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized her dedication through water baptism becoming a Jehovah's Witness. She introduced the truth to her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren making sure they had the opportunity for everlasting life. She preached the truth of God's kingdom to all she came in contact with.

Elmarie believed in family first and was the backbone of her family. She loved to cook and her meals were always homemade, some of her favorites dishes were duck and dressing, dinner rolls and the lemon icebox pie.

On October 9, 2016, Elmarie fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her son, Douglas Moody.

Elmarie will be missed dearly by all but especially her children, Minnie Mae, Roscoe, Terry, Jerry, Boony, Floyd and Elmarie; six sisters, Millie, Rosalie, Minnie, Lulua, Jessie and Cally; five brothers, Lonnie, Bud, Johnny, Odell and Joseph aka "Joe Lewis"; and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
