

Eula Mae Johnson

January 6, 1936 - July 30, 2017

Eula Mae Johnson was born January 6, 1936 in Lula, Mississippi, the first of six children born to Mary Ann Turner and Ananise Davis.

She grew up on the southside of Chicago, where she met and married Robert B. Johnson Sr. This union of love created four handsome and beautiful children Robert Jr., Derrick, Stephon and lastly Michelle.

Eula was a very warm, friendly, lovable and soft-spoken person, but, don't let the voice fool you. She had her "Diva" moments. She enjoyed skating, music, gardening, cooking and crocheting. She taught everyone who would sit still long enough to crochet. She always had an entrepreneur spirit, which led her to establish businesses in hairdressing and childcare. She loved to encourage other entrepreneurs to follow their dreams. Friendship was high on her list as well. She valued and cherished her friends, but, most of all, she loved Jehovah.

She dedicated her life to Jehovah on August 22, 1960. She spent many years in the full-time ministry helping others to get to know him. She faithfully served Jehovah for 57 years.

On July 30, 2017, Eula fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her parents: Mary Ann and Ananise; her son: Stephon on July 12, 2006; and her brother: Raymond on July 3, 2016.

Eula leaves to cherish her memories, her children: Robert Jr. (Jackie), Derrick (Samella) and her "favorite daughter" Michelle; her "honorary sons": Bernard and Tony; her sisters: Evelyn, Mary Ann, Maxine, Gladys and Elmira; her "honorary sisters": Jean, Katherine Evening and Ezell; her grandchildren: Marcus, Omyko, Tineka, Natasha, Jody, Rachel, Tiffany, Amber, Tatyana and Bernard Jr. "BJ"; her great-grandchildren: Devon, Isabella, D'Andre "DJ", Xavier, Malik, Jamal Jr., Nariya and Alice Renae; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins along with many friends.
