

James Curtis Moore

August 28, 1976 - November 15, 2018

James Curtis Moore was born August 28, 1976 to his mother, Theresa Moore and his fathers, Thomas Harris and Joe Grooms.

James attended Bowen High School and graduated in 1995. He had many friends who loved him and became a part of this family.

James was known to family and friends as “Big 50”, “Homie”, “Brah Brah”, “James”, and “Unk James”. He had a passion for cooking dinner is for everybody and never turned anyone down.

James had a smile that brightened up any room. He was silly and loved to dance. He was known for keeping a cup of coffee. He loved going to the casino.

James worked at Saint Agnus Nursing Home for many years where he was known for the good meals he prepared. His last employment was with Accute packing.

James was truly loved by his family and friends, but especially Bobbie Green, the love of his life. He had a unique laugh that will never be forgotten. He was a loyal friend, always there when you needed him. James left a personal impact on everyone he met.

On November 15, 2018, James was called home with his son-in-law Jerome Clapton. He was preceded in death by his aunt Charlene Moore.

James leaves to cherish his memory and his wife Bobbie Green; daughters Jazmin, Lashaunda and Yuniqueca; son Devontae; four grandkids with one on the way; mother Theresa Moore; father Joe Grooms; grandmother Mary Moore; sisters Chiquita Moore, Latasha Moore, Mariah Moore, and Kateri Moore; brothers Michael Moore, Cleveland, and Joshua; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.
