

LaVelle Robinson

December 24, 1943 - August 17, 2019

LaVelle Robinson was born on December 24, 1943 to the union of Cleo and Henry Taylor in Chicago, Illinois. She was the oldest child to bless their union.

She attended high school at both Dunbar and Hirsch High School. At Hirsch, she met the man she would marry and spend her life with Jack Robinson. LaVelle and Jack had three children, two daughters Jacqueline and Deborae and one son John. They proved to be a three fold cord not easily broken, staying married over 57 years. LaVelle was a devoted, wife, mother and grandmother.

She was a hard worker both inside and outside her home. She was employed at Spiegel for many years and later worked at Illinois Bell Telephone Company. She started a small accessories business that showed both her business skills and her personal sense of style and fashion.

LaVelle studied the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses and after making the truth her own she was baptized on December 16, 1972. She especially loved being in the ministry with her sister Wylene. She enjoyed the privilege of auxiliary pioneer service from time to time. She also loved attending the same Kingdom Hall as her nephew Tony and his wife Michele. She was a loving, kind and comforting person.

On August 17, 2019, LaVelle Robinson fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her parents Cleo and Henry Taylor; sister Wylene Rainey; and brother-in-law Tom Rainey.

LaVelle Robinson leaves to cherish her memory and continue her legacy, her husband Jack Robinson; children Jacqueline (Larry) Parker, Deborae (Jessy) Avila, and John (Felicia) Robinson; grandchildren Larry Jr., Blair, John Jr., Shaquille, Ja'Rae, and Sherriden; siblings Henry (Lynne) Taylor Jr., Altreda (Willie) Parks, and Valthea Frazier; special cousin Cheryl Washington; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and spiritual family too numerous to mention.

“ Dear Family
" And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."
My heartfelt condolences for your loss.

“ I remember Val's beautiful smile and hearty laughter. I couldn't have asked for a better sister in law. I'll miss you! Condolences to the entire family and especially husband Jack. You are all loved and remembered.
