

Mr. Lawrence J. Promise

July 21, 1939 - March 22, 2021

Lawrence J. Promise was born on July 21, 1939 in Melvina, Mississippi to Mrs. Letha Rogers. To his friends he was affectionately known as “Hog Head.” With a smile to light up the room, he was favored amongst many. Lawrence was the third of eight children,

In May of 1960, Lawrence united in holy matrimony with Pearline Coleman. To this union they were blessed with a beautiful baby girl, Laurie Ann Promise. Later in life he welcomed two loving boys, Bennie Cromedy and Shaun Hosey.

Lawrence loved the idea of family. He prided himself on being the best father and grandfather he could be. Often heard quoting “I love my little family” to anyone he knew. A man of many hats, he was skillful in his work ethics. Although he only had a third grade education, Lawrence was a man of many talents. To his grandchildren he would stress the importance of education. People marveled as his ability to easily grasp concepts and principles.

He was able to read blueprints, adverse in carpentry, and retired as an engineer from ITW, where he worked for 10 years. With a heart of patience, at 79 years of age, he decided to return back to work as a driver for the elderly until his death.

On March 22, 2021, Lawrence Promise was called home to join his six siblings in Heaven: Joe Lee Hayes, Rubin Jenkins, Steve Rogers, Tommy Rogers, LeAnna Nelson and Margaree Steven

To carry on his legacy, he leaves behind: a loving daughter, Laurie Promise (Otis); two wonderful sons Bennie Cromedy (Penny) and Shaun Hosey; eight grandchildren: Izell (Quita), Jasmine (Robert), Cornelius, Jashaun, Jashauntie, Symone, Raymone, Rebekah; his loving sister Thelma also known as “Jack”; sixteen great-grandchildren, two great-great grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.

His unconditional love, infectious smile, Dobb hats and cooking skills will surely be missed by his loved ones. Rest well my love.....
