

Marshall White

January 16, 1954 - December 5, 2017

Marshall White, affectionately known as 'The Marshall', was born on January 16, 1954 in Mississippi.

Marshall came in contact with the truth as a young man. He had a great love for what he was learning and dedicated his life to his God Jehovah becoming one of his servants. This had a profound effect on his life. He used his life to help persons learn these same wonderful truths.

Marshall became an elder in the Sherman Park Congregation. He set a wonderful example as a single brother. He gave of himself tirelessly for the congregation. He did many positive things for the congregation with many being unaware, he never sought recognition just to serve his God Jehovah and the congregation. He had a heart as big as an ocean, anyone in need Marshall was willing to help with the stipulation NO ONE BE TOLD.

For almost 40 years, Marshall remained single. As a single man he set a wonderful example on how to remain chaste in an unclean world. This too is a testimony to the kind of man Marshall was. This year Marshall decided to get married. He was so happy, he looked forward to his new life. He was to be married January 6, 2018. Sadly Marshall fell asleep in death almost a month shy of his wedding. Everyone looked forward to his happy day. He and Vera Drew were to have such a happy life.

They both believed with all their hearts in the resurrection, so very soon, Marshall will wake up in God's new world. When he wakes up he will expect to see all of you so let's do our best to make a good name with Jehovah God so we can welcome back Marshall.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his brothers, Lewis White, June White and William White; a host of nieces, nephews and cousins, Sherman Park Congregation, Vera Drew and her family and many friends.
