

Stanley Anthony Gossett

June 9, 1934 - January 4, 2015

Stanley Anthony Gossett was born on June 9, 1934 in Detroit, Michigan to the union of Sofie and William Nile Gossett.

As a young man, Stanley served his country and fought in the Korean War from 1951-1953. Upon returning back to the states, he met Esther Todd and in December 1955 the two united in holy matrimony. To this union five children were born.

Stanley was a provider for his family. Over the years, his working career included the Burlington Northern Railroad, the Laborers Union and the Shelter Lounge at 87th and St. Lawrence.

Stanley was known to family and friends as "Stan the Man". He loved his extended family at the Grant Village. He was known for having a big sense of humor and for always using his favorite saying, "Ain't no fun, when the rabbit got the gun." He loved watching his favorite TV show, Wheel of Fortune, listening to jazz music and all sports, period!

On January 14, 2015, Stanley Anthony Gossett fell asleep in death. Preceding him in death were his parents, Sofie and William; two siblings, Eddie and Ray; and one son, Jeffrey.

Stanley leaves to cherish his memories and continue his legacy, Esther Todd Dantley with whom he had five children; his four remaining children, Darryl, Ereina, Cynthia and Christopher; one sister, Denise Smith; 12 grandchildren, 11 great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Gossett Family,

With deepest sympathy we share your sorrow. May you find comfort in God's Word found at John 11:25.

“ Sorry for the loss of your loved one. I have found this scripture to be most comforting. I hope this will bring comfort to you as it has to me. Isaiah 41:10 “Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not be anxious, for I am your God. I will fortify you, yes, I will help you, I will really hold on to you with my right hand of righteousness.”
