

Valerie Natasha Freeman

June 12, 1965 - October 12, 2016

Valerie Natasha Freeman was born on June 12, 1965 in Chicago, Illinois to Sarah A. Freeman and Chester Freeman.

Valerie accepted Christ at an early age. She graduated from Lisle Senior High School and continued her education at College of DuPage where she obtained her Associates Degree in Criminal Justice. She further obtained her Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice at Chicago State University.

Valerie was employed as a Manager for a variety of restaurants and as a security guard for 20 years. She volunteered as a mentor for young adults, assisting them to obtain their GED as well helping further their education. Valerie enjoyed modeling and taking pictures, reading, crafts, and furthering her education. Even though Valerie had Lupus she was dedicated, supportive and encouraging to her other friends with Lupus, and showed compassion in her support groups. Valerie loved to help others, and always kept her head held high throughout the good times and bad. She was a compassionate daughter, sister, aunt s and the epitome of a lady.

On October 12, 2016, Valerie departed this life and went home to be with the Lord at Adventist Bolingbrook Hospital in Bolingbrook, Illinois. She is preceded in death by grandparents: Mattie Stanley and Peter Stanley, Estella and Charlie Freeman; and her nephew: Xavier Freeman.

Valerie Natasha Freeman leaves to cherish her loving memories and continue her legacy, her parents: Sarah A. Freeman and Chester Freeman; brothers: Stanley Freeman, Kenneth Freeman and Cori Littleton; sisters: Sandra Freeman, Phyllis Freeman and Nicole Freeman; nieces: Aja Van Buren and Lauren Freeman; as well as a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
