

Walter B. Donahoo

April 29, 1933 - December 8, 2014

Walter B. Donahoo was born on April 29, 1933.

In 1958, Walter married his longtime sweetheart, Dorothy. This union of 56 years produced four wonderful children, Felecia, Walter Jr., Gloria and Eric.

After a study of God's word the Bible, Walter dedicated his life to Jehovah. In June 1969, he symbolized his dedication through water baptism becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses. He was a loyal and faithful servant for over 45 years. After retiring from secular work, he was able to pioneer and achieve a goal that was dear to his heart, attending pioneer school, from then on, he would always quote something he learned from school.

Walter always cared for and provided for his family. His working career was spent with Ford Motor Company and after 30 years of service, he retired.

As a family man, Walter enjoyed spending time with his wife, taking her wherever she needed to go and making sure good food was part of the travels. He was a calm mannered man with a sense of humor, and these characteristics were seen by him up until the very end. One of his favorite sayings was, "Let's take one day at a time because pretty soon this will be a thing of the past".

On December 8, 2014, Walter B. Donahoo fell asleep in death. When he wakes up from his nap, you will no doubt hear him quote his favorite scripture, Isaiah 33:24, No resident will say, "I'm sick". He was preceded in death by one daughter, Felecia and one son, Walter Jr.

Walter leaves to cherish his memories, his wife, Dorothy Donahoo; one daughter, Gloria; one son, Eric; two grandsons, Matthew Johnson and Marcus Lowe; one great grandson, Marcus Jr.; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Comments

“ To the Donahoo Family,

With deepest sympathy we share your sorrow. May you find comfort in God's Word found at John 11:25.

Sincerely,

Sandra B.

Sandra Baker - March 07, 2015 at 10:44 AM