

Ada Denice Williams

July 22, 1957 - February 10, 2013

Ada Denice Williams was born July 22, 1957 in Oxford, Mississippi, to the union of Elijah and Ada Glenn Williams Sr. She was the third of four children.

In 1968 as a young girl, Ada with her family relocated to Chicago, Illinois. She continued her education graduating from high school in 1976.

If mildness can break bones, then Ada has broken a lot of them. For mildness, kindness and humility were some of her most outstanding qualities. You could not hear her raise her voice above hardly a normal conversation. She was always smiling, loving and caring to other people. She was never a complainer, even when she would be in pain or sick you hardly knew it, for she seldom complained.

One of the greatest highlights of Ada's life was when she dedicated her life to serve Jehovah and symbolized her dedication through water baptism on November 25, 1973. With her love of sharing the good news of God's Kingdom with others, Ada served as a regular pioneer for one year and attended pioneer school.

Ada married Joe McAtee and to this union were born two beautiful daughters, Joandrea and Alexis.

On February 10, 2013, Ada fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her parents and one brother, Isaiah.

Ada leaves to cherish her memories, two daughters, Joandrea and Alexis; two brothers, Elijah Jr. (Gloria) and Sidney (Tonia); one sister, Sharon; four nephews, Elijah (KaShea), Jeremy, Jacob and Trevor; three nieces, Elisa, Megan and Madisonne; three great nephews, one great niece, and a host of uncles, aunts, other relatives and friends.

Special thanks to uncle Joe Brooks, cousin Doris Jenkins, aunt Charlotte, aunt Thelma, cousin Jackie, cousins Sissy (Eugene) and the Aldens nursing staff in Lincoln Park for the extra loving care and kindness shown to her by them in her final days.
