

Albert Julius Cashaw

June 20, 1933 - June 15, 2012

Albert Julius Cashaw was born on June 20, 1933 in South Bend, Indiana to the union of Walter and Susie Cashaw.

Albert, affectionately called "Al" or "Sonny", accepted Christ at an early age. Later in life he learned about the promise of the resurrection.

Albert graduated from Washington High School in 1952. Throughout his high school years, he excelled in basketball, football and track. He was the recipient of many trophies and was inducted into the Washington H.S. Athletic Hall of Fame in 2004. After completing high school, he was drafted by the United States Army. After serving his country Albert was honorably discharged in 1955.

Al retired from the Casting Company in Melrose Park, IL, after many dedicated years of service. He also served as former chairman of Local 453 at National Casting Company.

Continuing his education, Albert attended Kentucky State University, majoring in Business Administration. He also attended Olive Harvey College in Chicago, majoring in Computer Programming and Business Law.

Before his illness, Al was active in various civic organizations. He was an avid bowler, participating in many leagues and tournaments, winning numerous trophies.

On Friday, June 15, 2012, Albert fell asleep in death. He was preceded in death by his parents, Walter and Susie Cashaw; and one brother, Charles Eugene Cashaw.

Albert leaves to cherish his memories, his loving and devoted wife of 41 years, Vera; three daughters, Kimberly Cashaw, Tanya D. Goins (Nimrim Jr.) and Nicole A. Sanders (James L. III); two lovely granddaughters, Nyla Simone Sanders and Nia Semaj Sanders; one brother, Edward Sullivan (Clara); three sisters, Idella Horton (Marvin), Annie Ward and Bernice Ward; one sister-in-law, Ella Cashaw; three special friends, Spandward and Alease Mitchem and Morris Williams; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
