

Albert Geeter

June 29, 1939 - October 11, 2016

Albert Geeter was born June 29, 1936 to the parents of Ashley and Corrine Geeter in Memphis, Tennessee. He was the oldest of their children.

After Albert graduated from Geeter High School he attended Tennessee State. He was an accomplished musician from high school. He toured with a band and played numerous instruments. After that for 30 years he was a truck driver for various companies. He then worked for the Board of Education then retired in 2002. Then he worked for the Chicago Transit Authority until various illnesses caused him to retire in 2011.

After careful examination of the scriptures, Albert dedicated his life to Jehovah and was baptized in 1988. He volunteered to help build Kingdom Halls in Los Angeles and the Kingdom Hall in Chicago at 60 East 103rd Street.

Albert was known for his contagious laugh. He also for many years was an auto mechanic in his spare time. He also enjoyed playing in a local band with other brothers performing for wedding receptions. His favorite music was Jazz.

On October 11, 2016, Albert fell asleep in death after fighting years of ailments. He was preceded in death by his parents, Ashley and Corrine; his siblings, Eva Owens, Nancy Williams, Martha Johnson and James Geeter; and his, son Ashley Geeter.

Albert leaves to cherish his memory, wife Mona Geeter; four sons, Albert (Martha), Michael (Regina), Randy (Charmaine) and John; two daughters, Paulette Geeter and Whinde Dawson; and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
