

Albert Lyons

June 27, 1938 - December 30, 2020

On the 27th day of June of 1938, Albert Lyons was born to the union of Marshall and Ernestine Lyons, who preceded him in death.

Albert grew up in Robbins, IL surrounded by his parents and a host of siblings-Deloris, Juanita, Ernest, Leonard, Robert, Lorraine, Lawrence, Anthony, Patricia and Phyllis.

.In 1961, Albert was inducted into the US Army as an Armorer. He shared memories of the time he spent overseas.

Albert returned home and worked at a tile company. Later, Albert started a family of his own. He married Angela C., with whom he had his one and only beloved son, Dion. Dion preceded Albert in death, but remained present in his heart and mind.

Albert enjoyed visiting with his family and friends and traveling. Albert was not only a traveler he was a navigator. He was known for making his way around to visit family, friends and many festivals and events thru out Chicago, without driving a car!

On December 30, 2020, Alberts life came to an end.

Albert leaves to cherish his loving memories, nieces, nephews and friends.
