

Alex "Skeet" Rogers

August 9, 1942 - January 15, 2012

Alex J. Rogers was born August 2, 1948 to Mr. Linze Champ and Bell Mae Rogers in Alligator, Mississippi. Alex was raised by his maternal grandparents, Hoppie and Jessie Rogers, Sr.

Alex was known as "Skeet" to his family and friends. He graduated from Shelby High School in MS. He later attended Jobcorp in St. Paul, Minnesota, where he also played semi professional basketball, one of his favorite pastimes.

Alex was a quiet man and was known to stay to himself. When asked how he wanted to be remembered, he said, he wanted to be remembered a a good guy. For those that knew him, that's exactly what Skeet was, a good guy.

Alex moved to Chicago, where he met his longtime companion, Martha Lee Banks. He loved his family and enjoyed the time spent with his them. His grandchildren held a special place in his heart, especially his 13 year old grandson, Brian, whom he called "Peachy Man".

On January 15, 2012, Alex gently closed his eyes in death. He was preceded in death by his parents, his grandparents and his longtime companion.

Alex leaves to cherish his memories, one son, Rodney J. Rogers; two daughters, Nina (Mason) Berry and Tiffany (Lionel) Williams; one uncle, Jessie Rogers Jr.; two aunts, Virginia Durham and Mattie Hodges; and a host of grandchildren, other relatives and friends.
