

Alice Davis

September 3, 1923 - February 28, 2014

Alice Davis was born September 3, 1923 to the union of Barney Nickson and Hattie Thurman Nickson in Belzoni, Mississippi. She was the fourth of seven children.

Alice was awarded her GED certificate by Coahoma Opportunities, Inc.

She lovingly provided for her children as a domestic worker. She loved cooking, baking homemade biscuits, and making peanut butter and jelly sandwiches. Her favorite pastime was quilting, she also liked canning, sewing and travel.

Ms. Alice taught her children and grandchildren that whatever you do, do your very best. Her saying was, "If a task is once begun, never leave it until it's done, deeds of labor great or small do it well or not at all."

Alice always loved God and wanted to please him. She began studying the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses and on April 20, 2008, Alice dedicated her life to Jehovah God and symbolized her dedication through water baptism. She loved talking to others about Jehovah and his promises of a paradise earth where there will be no more sickness, and death. Following the Bible's admonition at Hebrews 10:24-25, she COULD always be found at the congregation meetings where her comments built up the entire congregation.

On February 28, 2013, Alice fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers, RG and Tommy; three sisters, Ruby, Fannie and Maggie; two children, Sadie and Otha "Billy"; and one son-in-law, Arthur Browder.

Alice leaves to cherish her memories, three sons, Willie Earl Davis, Argusta Davis (Almedia) and Bernard Aundray Davis (Kelli); three daughters, Vera Elias (Curtis), Diann Browder and Venita Fairley (Xavier); one sister, Bonnie Mae Davis; 28 grandchildren; 20 great grandchildren; 3 great-great grandchildren; one aunt, Pearl Cooper; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
