

Althea Lillian Poole

November 5, 1928 - January 1, 2018

Althea Lillian Thomas Poole was born on November 5, 1928 at St. Luke's Hospital in Chicago, Illinois to John W. Thomas, Jr. and Lillian Mitchell.

On January 26, 1948, she married Aaron Poole. Out of her ten-year marriage to Aaron, she had three beautiful daughters, Donna Maria, Cynthia Jean and Debra Ann.

Althea dedicated her life to studying and sharing the word of Jehovah God and was baptized on June 20, 1981. Althea was a truth-teller and everyone who met her came to expect her witty way of bringing you her special brand of truth. When Sister Poole "took the mic" everyone paused to listen to her brave and loving words. She was faithfully engaged in the ministry whether door to door or telephone witnessing as long as she was able-bodied.

Althea fell asleep in death on January 1, 2018, believing in the power of Jehovah God to fulfil his promise to resurrect those who have fallen asleep in death. She will remain in Jehovah's memory until that time. She was preceded in death by her husband, Aaron Poole (d. 1987); her three beautiful daughters, Debra Ann (d. 2000), Donna Maria (d. 2006), and Cynthia Jean (d. 2014); one grandchild, Derrick Poole (d. 2005); and one great grandchild, DeAnn Spencer (d. 2015).

Althea leaves to cherish her memories, a host of grandchildren, Alethea Poole, Marco Anderson (Deysi), Toni Anderson, Lonnie Lomax, Anthony Poole, Michael Ferguson and Lillian Lomax as well as great grandchildren, Courtney Liberty, Imani Poole, Renee and Jasmine Lomax, Daniel Flores, Erin-Eileen Anderson, Eboni Lomax, Antonio and Jordan Anderson, Chase and Jordyn Ferguson and a host of great-great grandchildren. Althea also leaves behind a host of closest and dearest friends who look forward to seeing her again.

Althea's precocious and mighty spirit lives on through us all!
