July 20, 1956 - September 13, 2014

Alvin Marshall Jr. was born in Chicago, Illinois on July 20, 1956 to the loving parents of Alvin and Juanita Marshall.

Alvin received his formal education in the Chicago Public School system. He attended both Kennedy King and Truman College.

He accepted Christ and was baptized at Greater Harvest Missionary Baptist Church at a young age. In later years he rededicated his life to Christ.

His proudest moments were talking to and about his "girls", Carla, Tiffany and Teira. He loved being daddy and granddad. Alvin was known for his "gift of gab", his sense of humor and his warm nature. When his name is mentioned people always smile.

He proudly served in the United States Army and was stationed in Germany. Upon returning home, Alvin went to work for the Veteran's Administration.

Alvin enjoyed life. Reggae was his music, he enjoyed the laid back lifestyle it offered. His knowledge was legendary. There was not a subject he was not versed in, nor a city he couldn't tell you about. People were amazed at the breath and depth of his knowledge.

On September 13, 2014, Alvin Marshall Jr. closed his eyes and took his rest. He was preceded in death by his parents and his sister, Alvita.

“ My heart goes out to the entire Marshall Family. Always remember the special moments you spent with your him. Please find comfort in what the Bible says about the opportunity of seeing your loved one again under the very best of conditions right here on the earth: Jesus said to her: “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone who is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all. Do you believe this?” (John 11:25, 26)
