

Andrew Neely

May 23, 1936 - June 4, 2016

The life of Andrew Neely, affectionately known to most as Spooky, began on May 23, 1936, in Chicago, Illinois to the parents of Andrew Neely and Marjorie Hurst.

Andrew (Spooky) attended DuSable High School where he met and later married Emily, and to this union five children were born. This led him to becoming a father, grandfather, uncle and brother to many.

Spooky was a fun loving person. He worked at the US Steel Company for multiple years.

On June 4, 2016, Andrew fell asleep in death after fighting a long battle with illness. He is preceded in death by his wife of 60 plus years, Emily Neely; one son, Dwight Neely; and three siblings, Annabelle, Melvin and Alfred.

Andrew leaves to cherish his memories, his mother, Marjorie; six children, Debra, Andrew, Beverly (Gerald), Lucinda (Anthony), Doris (Conrad) and Brian; seven siblings, Nathaniel (Sharon) of Atlanta, GA, Kenneth (Jeanette) of Orlando, FL, Charles (Mary), Rodney (Harriett), Tamella, Robert and Jerome (Mary); and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and special friends.
