

Mr. Andrew Allen Taylor Jr.

December 31, 1933 - July 30, 2021

Andrew A. Taylor, Jr. was born December 31, 1933, in Chicago, Illinois. He was a 1951 class graduate of Wendell Phillips High School. He worked for Continental and United Airlines for many years.

Strictly raised in a Christian home, Andrew (affectionately known to some as “Sonny”), confessed a life in Christ at an early age and was baptized under the leadership of Bishop Arthur M. Brazier, Sr. at Apostolic Church of God located on 63rd & Dorchester. He had an unwavering love for God with a strong will and a very strong determination. No matter how dark the day may have appeared to look, he never lost hope. He didn’t mind letting anyone know that “things are working in divine order – it is all in God’s plan”.

He loved all his family, including those he considered as family. He stayed in touch and made sure he heard from all of his love ones. He would always let you know near and afar when you became his Angel and/or bodyguard. He loved life and he enjoyed living his life. One of his most favorite enjoyments was basketball high school, college and professional. He also enjoyed his blues music; he went to sleep with the music channel on for relaxation. Andrew was always looking forward to having a good time wherever or whenever the opportunity presented itself. Whether he was at home with visitors or out doing the visiting, he was determined to have a memorable time and make the very best of it all.

Andrew received his greatest reward for a life well done on July 30, 2021. He will be greatly missed. He is preceded in death by his mother, father and his only son.

Although I met Andrew at an older age, he was full of fire. I am sure that the torch he carried throughout his life, was used to ignite and spark individuals throughout his life, with maybe a conversation, some advice, lending a hand, or maybe some valuable time spent. Leaving those that crossed his path with an internal spark but most of all that sparkling, twinkle you could see glowing in his eyes...A man of the past that definitely lived for the future. Rest In Peace. My condolences to the family...,Ra Walker

“ He was a very uplifting person to talk to. Always ended his conversations with an encouraging word that made any situation seem brighter. When I asked if he was alright, He would say I'm only alright if you are alright. Love you, Sonny!!!!
