

Ann McLeod

May 2, 1938 - May 26, 2019

Ann McLeod née Fields was born May 2, 1938 in Mt. Pleasant, Tennessee to Watkin and Gertrude Fields. She obtained her formal education through the Chicago Public School system graduating from Hyde Park Academy. She received a scholarship to the Art Institute of Chicago and later in life attended art classes at Columbia College.

Ann always longed for Bible truths. She began studying the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses and after dedicating her life to Jehovah she symbolized her dedication through water baptism in 1956. Ann enjoyed speaking to others about Jehovah God and his future promises.

In 1958, Ann married Lee McLeod in Chicago, Illinois. She worked as a homemaker and on occasion, caterer as Ann was a phenomenal cook and baker. She was legendary for her "greens".

Ann truly enjoyed life through simple pleasures; collecting antiques, chatting with friends and family, cooking, baking, painting and spending time with her children and grandchildren. Ann had an uncanny ability to reach people in a deep and positive way and had an impact on many.

On May 26, 2019, Ann Fields McLeod fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her parents Watkin and Gertrude Fields, husband Lee McLeod and sister Hazel (Ernest) Koon.

Ann leaves to cherish her memory, one sister Ella (Steve) Smith; her beloved children Ondra McLeod, Lee (Haydee) McLeod, Wendy (Ezra) Jack, Kelly McLeod and Gretchen (Nick) Ciarlo; five grandchildren Catelen (Rueben) Turner, Paul-Lee A. McLeod-Rick, Brandon McLeod, Barbara McLeod, and Annaleigh McLeod; as well as many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“No greater joy do I have than this: that I should hear that my children go on walking in the truth.” 3 John 4

“ Dear McLeod family,

It has been well over 30 years since I have seen your family. I was shocked to discover that Mrs. McLeod had passed away. Just happened to see your mom's face on google images searching for my bosses linkedin acct. with the same last name. I knew your mom's face right away. Split image of Kelly.

I'm sad now as I am typing and remembering some of the best times of my life. Hanging out with Tony, Gretchen, Kelly and of course Wendy.

My heart goes out to your family. I miss everyone dearly from the bottom of my heart. And I hope that everyone is staying strong, healthy and safe. Hope to reunite with your family in the mere future.

My email address is: mcintosh275@outlook.com

Love you all!

God Bless!
