

Annie Williams

December 16, 1930 - January 11, 2021

Annie Williams was born December 16, 1930 to the union of Charlie and Everlina Foster. She was the youngest of six siblings. As a long time Chicagoan, she was educated through the Chicago Public School system, Felsenthal Elementary and Wendell Phillips High School where she excelled in all that she attempted. She had a gift with words, quick witted and made friends easily.

Her career in Mass Communications was cut short when she was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses on February 15, 1947, in Elgin, Illinois. She was very active in the disciple making and preaching the good news of God's Kingdom until her death on Monday, January 11, 2021. It can truly be said of her that she remembered her creator from the days of her youth.

She was married to Alonzo Williams Jr. on December 1, 1951. To this union they had one son Alonzo Williams III.

Annie and Alonzo served Jehovah together for 66 years. Always together, never deviating from their privileged service to Jehovah. Apart from her sacred service to Jehovah she most enjoyed the time spent at family gatherings with lively conversations. It can be said she touched the lives of many.

Annie was preceded in death by her parents Charlie and Everlina Foster; her siblings Odell Foster, Jesse Foster, Johnny Foster, Edna Brantley, and Charlie Johnson.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her son Alonzo Williams III; his wife Selena Williams; her granddaughters Elizabeth and Rebecca Williams; and many other endearing relatives and friends.
