May 24, 1959 - November 25, 2014

Anthony, commonly known as Tony, was born to Juanita Bradley and OC Washington on May 24, 1959 at Cook County Hospital in Chicago, Illinois.

Tony's childhood involved him visiting family and friends in Arkansas often and working for a paper route with his best friend Walter.

Tony became a God fearing man in his early adult years he was a member of Faith Temple Church but would be seen anywhere he could receive the word of God.

Tony graduated from Eisenhower High School in the late 70's and soon after graduating he began working at Michael Reese Hospital. He worked there for over 20 years. Tony was such a hardworking and dependable man, he had gotten the name "Overtime King" from many colleagues.

Tony was a caring and loving man who enjoyed surprising loved ones, traveling and having plenty of fun with family and friends. Tony also enjoyed reading his Holy Bible, sharing stories from his childhood and listening to gospel music. He was a beautiful man who was giving to all and also forgiving to all, he would always say he would leave things up to God. May God be pleased with him.

He is preceded in death by his mother, Juanita Bradley; his father, OC Washington; and both grandparents.
