

Antoinette Davis

November 29, 1956 - December 20, 2016

Antoinette Denise Davis, affectionately known as Ne Ne by family and Toni by friends, was born on November 29, 1956. Antoinette was born and raised in Chicago, Illinois to proud parents Clarence "Spike" Brooks and Bertha Brooks (Smith).

She gave birth to and adored four children, Tanisha Deanne Brooks. She then married Richard Henry Davis Sr. having Devon Richard Davis, Brandon Terrell Davis and Denae Nicole Davis.

Antoinette attended South Shore High School and graduated in 1975. Afterwards she attended Chicago State University. She went on to work numerous jobs but created a career in police dispatching working at the Riverdale Police Department and retiring from the Chicago Police Department in December 2013.

Antoinette was loving, affectionate and had a contagious smile. She loved to dance and "step" in particular. Anyone that knew her knew she loved to dress. She was always jazzy and the belle of the ball. She was a very spiritual being and passed on her knowledge of The Abrahams and their teachings as often as she could.

On December 20, 2016, Antoinette left her earthly vessel behind and returned to that whence she came. She was preceded in death by her father, Clarence Brooks; and one son, Devon Richard Davis.

Antoinette leaves to cherish her loving memories, her mother, Bertha Lee Brooks; her children, Tanisha Deanne Brooks, Brandon Terrell Davis and Denae Nicole Davis; two granddaughters, Kali A. Davis and Kori Devon Davis (Brandon); one paternal brother, Yul Brooks; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

“ I am sorry for the loss of your precious, Mrs. Davis.

When you have a moment, please read God's promise to you at Isaiah 41:10 and Isaiah 25:8. I hope God's words provide a measure of comfort to you during this difficult time.
