

Archie "Babe Brah" Davis

October 7, 1944 - February 8, 2012

Archie was born on Buford Plantation in Glendora, Mississippi to Ola Mae Davis and Eugene "Brah" Powell.

Archie attended school at Powell Chapel until he migrated to Chicago, Illinois in 1959, where he then attended Doolittle School.

In 1971, Archie met the former Myrtel "Carol" Davis. On June 9, 1973 they were married and to this union two children were born. Together they adopted one child, to bring their family size to nine.

Archie worked for Service Glass Company now known as Old Castle where he retired after 32 years of service.

He worked on the block club committee to keep the neighborhood a safe and peaceful place to live. One of his favorite pastimes was barbecuing for the neighborhood.

The Chicago Cub was Archie's team. He could often be found sitting, watching and cheering for the team.

On February 8, 2012, Archie "Babe Brah" Davis fell asleep in death. He was preceded in death by his parents, Ola Mae and Eugene; and seven siblings.

His family looks forward to a time when the "Last enemy death will be brought to nothing."

Archie will be deeply missed by all but especially his wife of 39 years, Carol; nine children, Ernest (Kimberly) Johnson, Angela Nelson, Tina (Greg) Watson, Anita Nelson, Dennis Johnson, Dorian Woods, Donta (Qiana) DAVIS, Mary Davis and Delores Davis; nineteen grandchildren; two great grandchildren; sisters, Eddie (Claude) Lake, Laura Jones, Mary Lumpkin and Doris (Robert) Powell Hilson; brother, Freddie (Barbara) Weeks; and a host of other family and friends.
