

Art J. Jackson

February 28, 1935 - June 8, 2014

Art J. Jackson "A.J." was born to the union of Alex Jackson and Nola Brown on February 28, 1934.

Art accepted Christ at an early age and served God wherever he was.

At the age of 19, Art joined the United States Army, where he served his country until he was injured and was honorably discharged.

On December 3, 1956, a son, Artis L. Engram was born to Art and Ora Lee (Engram).

Art later moved to Newhaven, Connecticut where he united in marriage with Elizabeth. After retiring he moved to Chicago, Illinois.

A strong advocate of education, Art attended Daley Jr. College and Robert Morris College, where he received several degrees.

A.J. was a caring and giving man. He was also a father figure to many including Michael, Antwon, Jakari, Aliyah, Ariyana, and Jaylan. Whenever we saw them with snacks we knew they came from "Uncle A.J.."

On Sunday, June 8, 2014, A.J. made his transition to eternal life. He was preceded in death by Ora Lee Engram; one son, Artis Engram; his brothers, Claudis, Alex, Marvin, James Jackson and George Brown; his sisters, Gladys, Irene Jackson and Anna Mae.

Art Jackson leaves to cherish his loving memories, one sister, Elizabeth Perkins; one sister-in-law, Irene Brown; three grandchildren, Jaimie, Adrienne and Cherie Burton; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
