

Asa DeAndre Williams

March 25, 2002 - July 18, 2018

Asa DeAndre Williams was born March 25, 2002 in East Chicago, Indiana. The son of Angela M. Duszynski-Robinson and Andre Marti Williams.

Asa attended several churches throughout his years.

In 2004, he attended Under Carry's Daycare where he graduated from kindergarten in 2007.

In 2008, he attended New Beginnings Learning Academy for grammar school where he learned to play the saxophone and read music. He then attended Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM) Academy Middle School District 149 in Calumet City, Illinois where he graduated from eighth grade and received a Silver Academy Achiever and a Teacher's Choice Award in 2016. He went on to Thornwood High School, Eisenhower High School and home schooled at Penn Foster High School. While still attending Thornwood High School, he attended Chicago State University for radio, broadcasting and making video games.

Asa loved skating with his friends at Markham Skating Rink, play basketball at the Sandridge Center, KROC Center and other places. He loved playing tennis with his dad and he was also a computer whiz.

On July 18, 2018, Asa departed this life. He was preceded in death by his father, Andre Marti Williams.

Asa leaves to cherish his memories, his mother, Angela M. Duszynski-Robinson (Mark); grandmother, Pinky B. Williams; stepmother, Agnes Williams; sister, Amilia C. Williams; aunts, Gail I. Williams, Betty Westmoreland-Williams, Janice Johnson (Lee), Marie Johnson, Joni Howard-Horn, Sally Baker (Mercer), Amanda Duszynski (Lee), Nicole Duszynski (Mario) and Carla Campbell; uncles, Julian C.
