

Mrs. Audra Mae McDonald

December 29, 1934 - September 8, 2021

Audra Travillion was born December 29, 1934, in Chicago, Illinois. Audra was the third of five children.

While attending a party, Audra noticed this man standing across the room. She said to herself, "Who is that handsome man holding up that wall?" He turned out to be her future husband. They later married on January 4, 1954, and remained married for 67 beautiful years. During their union they had seven children

Audra began studying the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses; she attended Congregation meetings, Assemblies, and Conventions, then dedicating herself to Jehovah and symbolized her dedication by water baptism on January 30, 1994, before many, becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses. Many days Audra and her husband walked together through rain and snow, from door to door, carrying out the assignment to preach the Good News of God's Kingdom until she became ill. Audra always put her hope and trust in Jehovah for a resurrection to enjoy life to it's fullest right here on earth in paradise....Ps 31:11

Audra was a wonderful wife, mother, and grandmother, always offering of herself to others. She loved making everyone laugh by telling jokes, also playing the Piano, but her specialties, was cooking for her family. Before you could taste your food, she would say, "How is it?" Always hoping everyone enjoyed it. She was an excellent cook, and she and her cooking will be dearly missed.'

On September 8, 2021, Audra fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her parents, three siblings one child.
