“ Audrey Laverne Harris

“ I live two doors down from Audrey's condo and walk by every day on the way to the park with my dog. Almost every day I see something and think, Audrey would have loved that. I so want to see her and talk to her again. I am stunned that she is no longer here. I hope it gets easier for all of us.

“ Romans 6:23 For the wages sin pays is death, but the gift God gives is everlasting life by Christ Jesus our Lord.

“ We were so sorry to hear of your loss. Audrey was an amazing woman with so many talents. She was full of life and her kindness touched everyone she met. I had the opportunity of meeting her at UCM (Gilda's Club programming) and I can't count how many laughs we shared during knitting, jewelry making, relaxation workshops or playing endless games of Scrabble. She touched so many people's lives with the inspiring and enthusiastic way she lived her life. We will miss her.

“ Audrey made everyone feel at ease and accepted. No one had more energy or zest for life. I could share any discovery or enthusiasm with her and know that it would be appreciated. She was mature beyond her years and able to connect with others at any age. She leaves a deep hole in my heart, but I'm so glad to have known her and laughed with her. She must have a remarkable family. We all share her loss. Norma Haber

“ Dear Family of Audrey's, She and I were neighbors who had developed a fairly recent but delightful friendship. Living one street apart we often would meet and talk in the park on sunny days, attend local plays with some other neighbors, walk down the street for lunch or breakfast at a favorite café and, sometimes even when she was frail, fly some of my kites on the beach to forget about the unpleasant things. My heart opens to all of you and hopes that time will preserve the beautiful memories and soften the pain of grief.

I have sent a photo of Audrey taken almost exactly one year ago at a park picnic in front of her house. That is our local Police Commander next to her along with some neighbors. Audrey made everyone around her smile. Each time I think of Audrey my heart smiles through the sadness.

“ I will miss the conversationons and lunch meetings we have had over the past 25 years since I met Audrey at the American Hospital Association. Audrey was a great mentor for me in my early years working at the Amereican Hospital Association. Over the years our friendship grew and we found out that we had many spiritual friends in common.

May Jehovah our God be of comfort to the family, as we look forward to the fullfillment of John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:3& 4. In Loving Memory.

“ I was sorry to hear the news about Audrey's passing. She and I worked together at the American Hospital Association for about five years. She was a supportive and encouraging co-worker and manager. When she moved to Rogers Park we became closer friends and neighbors. Audrey was a strong, wise woman with deep integrity.

We talked of many things but, what I remember most about our conversations was her love and appreciation for all of her family, especially her parents.

Yes Tess you are right about Audrey- she was a very caring person who was deeply devoted to her parents. She will definitely be missed, however we are comforted by the Bible's promise that we will someday soon see our dead loved ones again.
