

Azalyn Brimley

July 9, 1970 - December 2, 2013

Azalyn (Lyn) Brimley was born on July 9, 1970 to the union of Calvin and Beverly Brimley of Chicago, Illinois. Lyn was the first of five children to bless their union.

Affectionately known as "Boo", she grew up in a loving home that was always full of life and laughter.

Lyn graduated from Chicago Vocational High School and pursued a career in business administration. She worked as an administration assistant.

Lyn was a loving mother to her daughter Tifani. They were more than just mother and daughter they were friends, sharing their own language and super close bond.

Always upbeat, Lyn was the life of the party. She enjoyed spending time with family and friends.

At a young age, with her sister by her side, Lyn dedicated her life to Jehovah and as her illness progressed she bravely stood firm in her beliefs.

Lyn is survived by her loving parents, Calvin and Beverly Brimley; her daughter, Tifani Kellogg and her father Rommel Kellogg; two sisters, Crystal

(Kenneth) Hunter and Tamara (Quinn) Jones; two brothers, Calvin (Amber) Brimley and Michael (Alove) Brimley; grandmother, Edna Brimley; two nieces, Bria and Kennedy; three nephews, Quinn, Abijah and Josiah; and a host of cousins and friends too numerous to mention.
