

Mr. Balsamo Clark

December 15, 1954 - October 11, 2021

Balsamo Clark was born on December 15, 1954, in Detroit, Michigan. He was the middle of five children blessed to the union.

Balsamo received his education in the Highland Park School system and graduated with a diploma.

Balsamo was a practicing Baha'i. Balsamo never married and had no children. He was a kind and gentle man who would do what he could for you, if you needed a ride somewhere or food to eat, everyone who knows Balsamo, speaks very highly of him.

Balsamo had rough and hard times after his graduation from high school, but eventually he overcame his tough choices. Balsamo moved to Chicago to be with his sister in the early 2000's where he continued and attained his higher education, which was an Associate in General Studies from Prairie State College and his Bachelor of Arts in Interdisciplinary Studies from Governor State University.
