

Bayo O. Hamza

September 18, 1955 - August 11, 2016

Bayo O. Hamza was born on September 18, 1955 in Lagos, Nigeria.

Bayo was raised as a Muslim, he later converted and became a Christian.

Bayo attended elementary and high school in Lagos. To pursue higher education, he relocated to the United States in the mid '70's as a young man. He attended Truman College and graduated from Northeastern University.

Bayo, also known as Milo, is a proud and loving father of one daughter, Rebecca Hamza, who resides in Lagos.

Though he was one to stay to himself, Bayo loved his career as a Cab Driver. It afforded him the opportunity to meet many people.

On Augusts 11, 2016, after a brief illness, Bayo passed away at his residence. He was preceded in death by his parents and his brothers and sisters.

Bayo leaves to cherish his loving memories, his daughter, Rebecca; and a host of other relatives and his Nigerian community of friends.
