

Beatrice Woodhouse

December 26, 1911 - August 16, 2014

Beatrice Woodhouse was born on December 26, 1911 to the union of Bester Walker and Mary Cooper. She was the oldest of three girls, Gladie Mae and Emma Lee.

In 1932, Beatrice came to Chicago, Illinois. She married Eddie Lee Winters and later Willie Woodhouse.

Beatrice accepted Christ at an early age. She was a member of New Covenant Missionary Baptist Church for over 65 years, under the leadership of Pastor Stephen J. Thurston.

On Saturday, August 16, 2014 Beatrice departed this life for her heavenly home. She was preceded in death by two sisters, Gladie Mae and Emma Lee Brown.

Beatrice leaves to cherish her memories, Barbara Smith, Johnnie M. Smith, Vickie Randall, Michael Thomas and Genell Thomas; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, great-greats and friends.

“ May the God of all comfort be with you during this difficult time. Jehovah promises to turn our tears of sorrow into tears of joy when He reunites us with our loved ones on a Paradise earth - Revelation 21:3,4.

“ Heartfelt condolences to the Woodhouse family, please accept my thoughts and concerns for you. We all have been hurt by the enemy death, and extend not only sympathy but also empathy. The Bible helps us to know that Almighty God is a God of love, and certainly cares for us. (1 Peter 5:7) Very soon all the pain, suffering, and death will be done away with. Just think of living on this earth without the suffering, replaced with love, peace and living forever. Yes, this is a reality that is written in the Holy Bible for all of mankind. Please read the comfort find at John 5:28,29, those asleep in death will be awoken to a life of happiness.

“ Dear Woodhouse family,

May you find comfort in Almighty God's promise to rid the earth of sickness and even death forever. (Rev.21:3,4) Please accept my condolences for your loss.

Sincerely

“ Sorry for your loss. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone you love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk to, laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. The Scriptures indicate that it is possible to be reunited with your dead loved one in the near future, right here on earth under peaceful, righteous conditions. And at that time humans will have the prospect of enjoying perfect health, and they will never have to die again. Notice what Jesus said at Luke 23:43 “Truly I tell you today, you will be with me in Paradise.”

*As well Isaiah 25:8- He will swallow up death forever,
Isaiah 33:24- And no resident will say: “I am sick.”*

And notice how Jesus will bring this about at John15:28,29 “Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, and those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.” For more comfort please go to the website JW.ORG and then search for “When Someone You Love Dies” Brochure

“ My heart goes out to the entire Woodhouse Family. Always remember the special moments you spent with her. Please find comfort in what the Bible says about the opportunity of seeing your loved one again under the very best of conditions: “There is going to be a resurrection.” --Acts 24:15

For more comfort please go to the following website www.jw.org and search for “ Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your loved one. There is a hope that God has given us at John 5:28, 29, "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.". Then search for the book "What Does The Bible Really Teach?" Chapter 7. I'm sure you will find much comfort. Tina A.
