

Bennie Jones

January 26, 1934 - October 28, 2012

Bennie Jones was born on January 26, 1934 in DeRidder, Louisiana in Scotts Settlement, Vernon Parish to the union of Ed and Ada Stewart.

Bennie attended Beauregard Parish Training School. After moving to Chicago, Illinois she attended school and learned data processing.

In April 1955, Bennie united in holy matrimony with Harrell Jones.

Being a strong woman, Bennie was very protective of her children, Wanda D. Lucious, Bernadine "teeny girl" Madison, Sean Harrell Jones, S. Roneal Jones "spin", Edward Glen Jones, Benjamin Lee Jones Sr. and Pamela Yvette Jones. She was kind hearted and very generous. She was always making something for somebody, whether it was through her crocheting, cooking or sewing, it didn't matter, because she loved doing it.

After a careful study of God's word, Bennie dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized her dedication through water baptism on December 23, 1973, becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses. She was a faithful servant for 38 years who loved reading the Bible and telling others about the good news of Jehovah God's Kingdom.

On Sunday, October 28, 2012, Bennie fell asleep in death, with the promise of the resurrection at John 5:28 and 29 firmly fixed in her heart. She was preceded in death by her brothers, Authur Stewart "P. Joe", Paul Stewart, Wiley Stewart "W.R.", Wymon Stewart and Don Phillip Stewart "D.P."; and her sisters, Ida Mae Anding, Lovey Mae Ambeau "Duck", Alma Rogers "Granny" and Mandie Mae Crawford.

Bennie leaves to cherish her memories, her children, Wanda D. Lucious (husband, Edward Lucious), Bernadine "teeny girl" Madison, Sean Harrell Jones (wife, Karen Roberta Jones), S. Roneal Jones "spin", Edward Glen Jones, Benjamin Lee Jones Sr. (wife, Simone Jones) and Pamela Yvette Jones; her brother, Wilbon Stewart; her sister, Eddie B. Ransom; and a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
