

Betty Walker

October 11, 1951 - April 12, 2015

Betty Walker was born on October 11, 1951 in Bobo, Mississippi to the union of Bennie Moore and Willie Mae Moore. Betty loved the Lord all her life and she was baptized at a young age.

On a warm spring day in March, Betty married Arthur Walker, their union was blessed with five children. Betty proved herself the capable wife the Bible mentions in the 31st chapter of Proverbs. She was a loving mother, great cook, and the Rock and glue that held the family together. Knowing Betty, you knew she loved her children, but her grandchildren were her heart. Grandchildren would run away to granny's house.

Her warm and jubilant spirit was admired by all. Everyone loved Betty's smile. Her laugh was infectious, her hugs always appreciated and welcomed. She volunteered weekly at the McMillian Senior Center to help feed and care for the elderly. She was supremely trustworthy, her word was her bond. She enjoyed arts and crafts and singing.

On April 12, 2015, at her church, Betty Walker heard her Lord and Savior say "Well done my Good and Faithful Servant", closed her eyes and took her rest. She was preceded in death by her mother, Willie Mae Streeter; one son, Kelsey Walker; one sister, Lera Smith; and one brother, Jerry Carter.

Betty leaves to cherish her memory, her loving husband, Arthur Walker; four children, Arthur (Karla), Catherine Reed, Danny and Jennifer (Timothy) Bagby; two grandchildren she raised as her own, Keasha and Isaiah; one sister, Essie Bryson; one brother, Quincy Moore; sixteen grandchildren, four great grandchildren, and a host of relatives and friends too numerous to mention.
