“ I will always remember the many nights that Sister Reyes saved me from an extra long stay at the Kingdom Hall after the Theocratic School and Service meetings ended. When she took me home I didn't have to wait for my husband's, Ted, Elder's meetings to end. The ride in her big, black SUV was always appreciated and I was able to learn some things about her that I otherwise probably wouldn't have known (she was a breast cancer survivor). I'm looking forward to seeing her again in the New World that is sure and soon to come.
