

Ms. Bobbie Washington-Berry

August 20, 1942 - July 29, 2021

Bobbie Jean Washington-Berry “Momma” was born on August 20, 1942, in Poplar Bluff, Missouri. After a long battle with cancer, Momma died July 29, 2021, peacefully at Holy Cross Hospital.

It would be wrong to say that Momma lost her battle because she never stopped fighting. No matter how sick she was, she was always determined. Through her, we know what resilience and perseverance genuinely mean.

Momma may not have had what some people called a glamorous career as she didn’t ever pursue any education beyond her high school diploma and becoming a nurse’s assistant, but she loved what she did. Momma was a foster parent, and as a result, she adopted three sons, they loved her like she was their biological mother.

Momma was well respected in the community, her kids would often come home from school to find her and the neighborhood women laughing and sipping coffee in front of the building. She had a good heart, a good sense of humor, was outspoken and outgoing. She loved going to thrift stores, yards sales, flea markets, and just finding a bargain. She was a great cook and loved people.

All of momma's children would like to conclude by borrowing the lyrics from a famous song: "I'll always love my mama; She's my favorite girl.....I'll always love my mama; she brought me in this world."
