

Brenda K. Walthour

August 4, 1962 - June 17, 2013

Brenda K. Walthour was born August 4, 1962 in Phoenix, Illinois to Roy R. Walthour and Arlene Walthour.

After a study of God's word the Bible, Brenda symbolized her dedication to Jehovah through water baptism on March 24, 1974, becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses. Brenda loved Jehovah, she made a point of telling everyone she knew about her God Jehovah. Understanding the importance of Hebrews 10:24 and 25, Brenda set up her dialysis around her meeting times so she could be present to incite love and fine works in the congregation. On Saturday mornings when not being able to participate in the door to door ministry, Brenda took other ways to stay active in the ministry, by letter writing or phone witnessing.

Everyone knew Brenda for her open friendly personality, her laughter and smile, her generosity, and at times her love of cookies, candies and all things sweet. She was especially famous for her chocolate chip cookies.

On June 17, 2013, Brenda fell asleep in death. Her family looks forward to the fulfillment of Isaiah 33:24 welcoming her back to a paradise earth where no resident will say, I am sick. She was preceded in death by her mother, Arlene Walthour; her sisters, Phillis Darden, Pamela Ashley and Delores Darden-Clemons.

Brenda leaves to cherish her memories, her sisters, Barbra Davenport (Garland), Jacquelyn Williams (Delman), Kathy Darden, Kimble Walthour, Monica Jackson (Jeff), Stacey Walthour and Mia Walthour; her brothers, Gilbert Darden (Diane) and Roguest Walthour; her father, Roguest Walthour Sr.; all her co-workers at the State Police whom she worked with for 20 years; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
