

Brett Hanes

November 12, 1964 - May 23, 2016

Brett Hanes was born on November 12, 1964 in Hastings, Nebraska to DeWayne and Sandra Hanes. He grew up in rural Nebraska with his five siblings; Kimberly, Lesli, Brian, JoDee and Tammi.

Brett loved life from the start and was always an active child earning the nickname “Rip Snorter” from his dad. It will not surprise anyone to know that even from an early age Brett loved to work. Taking care of the yard, garden, and having employment with local farmers from a very young age. During this time Brett was also coming to learn about Jehovah through the direction of his mom and dad. In 1978 during a tract campaign Brett made a personal dedication to Jehovah and symbolized it by water baptism on July 1, 1978. He stuck to this dedication and his God Jehovah his entire life.

Brett grew up knowing a girl named Amy Lindemann and on June 2, 1984 they were married. Brett had two sons Benjamin and Isaac who were the joy of his life. While everyone knew Brett as a busy person who gave 100% whether it be secularly or spiritually to Jehovah his greatest love was the “simple things” being with his family grilling on the deck, playing cards, watching sunsets. Many will remember his references to “Amy and the boys”.

Brett did a LOT in his life both secularly and spiritually. While we could list these he would want to be remembered as a “Servant of Jehovah” as this was the reason for anything he did in his life. His kindness and love of people will always be remembered. Because of this love he had a way of making anyone feel special. He was the real deal. Many here have no doubt received one of his text or emails with a special message or picture he had just for them.

Brett was preceded in death by his daughter Rachel Marie and leaves behind to miss him, his wife, Amy; sons, Benjamin and Isaac; parents, DeWayne and Sandra Hanes; sisters, Kimberly, Lesli, JoDee, and Tammi, as well as brother, Brian, to this we add their spouses and children; many other relatives, friends, and co-workers as well. His hope in the resurrection was sure and we all need to do our best to be able to see him when that time comes.
