

Brian Aherne Nard

January 28, 1957 - October 11, 2015

Brian Aherne Nard was born in Chicago, Illinois at Cook County Hospital on January 28, 1957 to the union of Essie Barbara "Bobby" and Edward Nard Sr.

Brian accepted Christ in 1986.

Brian attended Orr High School in 1971 and desired to complete his scholastic education by completing his GED. At this point, Brian's desire for learning heightened when he attended IIT for his certification as an Electrician, also his licensure as a Barber, then licensure as a Certified Driver for 16 and 18 wheelers. Brian was also employed at Sky Chef as a Food Truck Delivery Driver to the aircrafts. He was so aspiring, his last quest was being his own boss for B & B Lawncare. He was a great businessman and held his own business until he became disabled. Not exactly as states yet not chronically in its order.

Brian was an outgoing, good spirited, empowering, loving, fun, family oriented man also known by others who used his middle name Aherne.

On October 11, 2015, Brian peacefully departed this life. He was preceded in death by his sister, Rachel; his mother, Essie Barbara; and his father, Edward Nard Sr.

Brian leaves to cherish his memory, his children, LaTrenica (Quinton) of Houston, TX, Teon (Earnesta) of Chicago, IL, Antwain of Chicago, IL, DeSheena (Christopher) of Springfield, IL and Brian of Mobile, AL; his ex-wife of 25 years, Vernice Miller; and at the time of his death, significant friend, Loretta Carson and her daughter, Gabrielle Carson; his siblings, Edward Jr. (Carol), Darren, Gregory, Adrian (Lawrence), Jennifer (Darryl), Winston and Twymener; his aunt, Valerie (Charles); two honorable mention cousins, Tony Spikes and Mikey Spikes; and a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
