

Camille Jeanette Chambers

October 19, 1971 - October 21, 2013

Camille Jeanette Chambers was born Tuesday, October 19, 1971 at 4:07 pm at St. Joseph Hospital on the north side of Chicago, Illinois to Patricia Chambers. She was supported by her grandfather, Lawrence Chambers, and raised jointly by her mother and grandmother, Velma Chambers. She briefly lived in New Mexico before returning to Chicago in 2008.

Camille was passionate about her career as a Dental Assistant and continued to strive to complete her education as a Dental Hygienist until she no longer had the strength. Camille loved her family and friends deeply and unconditionally. When she made a friend, they were friends for life.

Camille had a great sense of humor, which intensified during her last few months of life. Stepping was her favorite dance and she especially enjoyed music from the 70's and 80's.

Camille found new faith in God and in the resurrection. She believed that one day she would awaken in a Paradise earth and hoped to reside on a beautiful mountain side with a view of a serene waterfall.

Camille Jeanette Chambers, 42, fell asleep in death on Monday, October 21, 2013 at Mercy Hospital in the Vitas' Hospice Unit after a yearlong battle with breast cancer. She was preceded in death by her twin brothers, Neal and Avery Chambers and her grandfather, Lawrence Chambers.

Camille is survived by her sons, Johnny and Jonah Warmack; her daughter, Jiana Chambers; her mother, Patricia Chambers; her grandmother, Velma Chambers; her aunt, Linda Chambers; her brothers, Floyd (Shanta) Terry, Roy (Shana) Willis, Jason (Ciera) Ross and Tyrone Austin; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and lifetime friends.
