

Mr. Carletos Elroy Hardemon Sr.

June 2, 1939 - October 25, 2022

Carletos E. Hardamon Sr., was born June 2, 1939 to Jessie and Ora Hardamon in Hodges Park, Illinois.

He attended and graduated from high school in the Hodges Park area. After graduation he moved to the Chicago area.

Carletos was a hard working man. After working many odd jobs He landed a job with Charles Levy. He took pride in the fact he could count on one hand how many days he missed at work. He retired after 31 years of faithful service. He was a loving husband and father.

After studying the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses, Carletos dedicated his life to Jehovah and symbolized that dedication through water baptism in 2017. He made Beverly Woods congregation in Chicago his spiritual home.

Carletos was a man of few words unless you got to know him. He was full of humor and he could get a good laugh out of you. We all have a personal or funny story to share about him with one another. He liked watching sports but what's funny he didn't like any Chicago teams. Yes even the 90's Chicago Bulls.

He was someone you could count on! He set so many fine examples for "US".

And we all cherish, love and thank him dearly for those memories.

Carletos E. Hardamon Sr., fell asleep in death on Tuesday, October 25, 2022 at Little Company of Mary Medical Center in Evergreen Park, Illinois. He was preceded in death by his parents Jessie and Ora Hardamon, son Marty Hardamon, sister Arnetta Hardamon, and brothers Curtis Hardamon Sr., Homer Hardamon, and Alonzo Hardamon.

Carletos leaves behind a loving wife of 54 years, Robbie J. Hardamon, 4 children to cherish his precious memories Ty Hardamon, Sharon Coppage, Carletos Hardamon Jr. and Michelle Hardamon; 13 grandchildren Inekas, Paris, Ty Jr., Tytiana, Taryn, Antoine, Sandria, Robert Jr., Carletos III, Carlisha, Shavontay, Devonte, and Christopher; 21 beautiful great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and a host of family and friends too numerous to mention.
