“ I heartfelt condolences goes out to each and everyone of you. I did know Carmella, even though it was my wish to know all of you. For the times I called to speak with my father she was always nice to me and helped me to understand that even though he was not in my life he did love me. For that I give thanks. She gave me peace of mind. I know that GOD is taking care her and she is at peace. To my sister Chantel, if you need me (if only to talk) all you have to do is call. God Bless you. Know that he is there in you time of need.##imported-begin##Eloise Rowell##imported-end##

“ Words cannot express the way we the Entire Smith Family feel about the loss of Carmella. She was a woman of God who had style and grace. I know that God is with her, and I pray that he keeps his healing hands on the rest of the family. To God be the Glory; for the things he has done on Yesterday, Today, & Tomorrow.##imported-begin##Smith Family##imported-end##

“ I will miss going to visit my Auntie. She was the same every time I saw her, she had this quiet sense of humor that never faded even in her illness. I was blessed to be part of the family. Michelle, Lisa, Michael, Coby, and Toon you are in my prayers. A special note to my "sister/cousin" Chantel, you know we are more like sisters than anything and YOU already know I'm here for you. You are in my prayers now and forever. Love you all!Pooh##imported-begin##De'Vonna Pittman##imported-end##
