

Carrie Lee Hawkins

January 22, 1946 - March 19, 2017

Carrie Lee Hawkins was born January 22, 1948 to the union of Virgil and Gertrude Hawkins. She was the youngest of nine children. Carrie was a busy little girl who loved to play and dance.

Her vivacious personality and candid demeanor made Carrie a force to be reckoned with. She was well known for her music collection, fabulous cooking and "lets get it done" attitude. She was a great sister, aunt and surrogate mother whose love for family knew no bounds.

Carrie worked for CDT Transportation Services where she enjoyed her job transporting the disabled and elderly.

In 1985, Carrie dedicated her life to Jehovah God and symbolized her dedication through water baptism. She loved talking to others about her God Jehovah and telling them about a time when no resident will say I'm sick. Carrie took the command at Hebrews 10:24-25 seriously and was always at the meetings having a full share with her fellow worshippers in the Riverview Park Congregation.

On March 19, 2017, Carrie Lee Hawkins fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her mother and father, Virgil and Gertrude; one brother, Virgil Jr.; and two sisters, Gertrude and Louise.

Carrie Lee Hawkins will be deeply missed by all who knew her but especially, three brothers, Floyd, Willie (Marie) and Joseph; two sisters, Mildred Gavin and Mary Florence; her surrogate daughter, Deborah Lee; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
