

Catherine Purdy

June 28, 1933 - May 2, 2013

Catherine Purdy was born June 28, 1933 to the union of Abner Hurt and Evie Hurt in Harrisburg, Arkansas.

Catherine was married twice to her dear husband Nathaniel Purdy. To that union was born Jerri, Phyllis, and Annette. Nathaniel died on January 12, 1977.

After a study of God's word the Bible, Catherine dedicated her life to Jehovah. She and her mother Evie, symbolized their dedication through water baptism together in 1962. she loved the friends and always enjoyed preparing meals for the circuit overseer's visits.

Catherine was a natural caregiver. She was a Licensed Practical Nurse for almost 40 years. She was praised for the love and care she gave to her elderly patients. She loved to cook dinner and invite her daughters and all her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. You never needed a personal invitation to Catherine Purdy's house. Her son-in-laws were willing to help her in any way they could. She really missed Elgia and Carl when they died. She dearly loved her son-in-law Ronald Hooks. He was the son she never had.

On May 2, 2013 Catherine Purdy fell asleep in death. Her belief in the paradise and the resurrection hope sustained her through many trials.

Preceding her in death are her mother, Evie Hurt; an aunt, Pearl Shelton; her dear husband, Nathaniel Purdy; her first grandson, Nathaniel Trotter; her best friend and sister-in-law, Johnnie Mae Hurt; her niece and nephew, Michelle Hurt and John Hurt; and two of her sons-in-law, Elgia Lee Trotter and Carl Davis.

Catherine leaves to cherish her memories, her three daughters, Jerri Hooks (Ronald Hooks), Phyllis Trotter and Annette Davis; her dear brother, Lenzy Hurt; her eight grandchildren; Illi Wynn (Anthony Wynn), Jordan Hooks (Tina Hooks), Jonathan Trotter (Elizabeth Trotter), David Trotter (Shaneva Trotter), Phillip Trotter (Abby Trotter), Joy Trotter, William Beaver (Nicole Beaver) and Morgan Beaver; ten great-grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends that will miss her.
