

Catherine Winfield

September 6, 1933 - June 23, 2015

Catherine Winfield was born September 6, 1933 in Baton Rouge, Louisiana to Auther and Alberta Winfield.

In the mid 1950's, Catherine moved to Illinois and met Willie Franklin. Together they raised eleven children.

Catherine was a homemaker. She loved her family and they meant everything to her. She showered them all with lots of love, knowledge and endless laughter. There was no problem too big or too small. She was always there to help you solve whatever issue you had. Catherine was a very strong woman in mind, body and soul and will be deeply missed.

Catherine's love for God led her to study the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses. This strong love led her to dedicate her life to Jehovah and symbolize her dedication through water baptism becoming one of Jehovah's Witnesses.

On June 23, 2015, Catherine fell asleep in death in her home with her family by her side. She was preceded in death by her parents, Auther and Alberta Winfield; four children, Anthony Porter, Gloria Smith, Glenda Winfield and Betty Ann Winfield; three brothers, Freddie Winfield, Melvin Winfield and Charles Winfield; and one sister Alberta Winfield.

Catherine leaves to cherish her loving memories, seven children, Charles Porter, Rosemary Harrison (Reggie), Willie B. Owens (Roy), Debra Franklin, Jerome Franklin, Gwendolyn Johnson (Timothy) and Wendell Franklin; one sister, Enola Winfield; and a host of nieces, nephews, grandchildren, great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, other relatives and friends.
