

Mrs. Cecelia Anderson

May 5, 1944 - December 15, 2022

Mrs. Cecelia Anderson was born May 5, 1944, in Birmingham, Alabama to Sallie Lou Murray. She was the third child. Her two brothers, Joe Cephas and Jesse, preceded her in death.

Cecelia migrated to Chicago at a young age. Cecelia attended elementary school and graduated from John Marshall High School.

Cecelia professed Christ at an early age. Her grandfather, "Papa", instilled the fear of the Lord upon her and her siblings.

Cecelia met and was joined in Holy Matrimony to Willie Anderson on October 27, 1962. To this union four children were born. Willie preceded her in death. Cecelia was a devoted house wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, step mother and Mother of the Church.

Cecelia was a faithful and loyal member of Christ In You, Hope of Glory Church for over 35 years, under the leadership of Apostle Calvin Smith. She served on the Ushers Board, Hospitality Committee, and the Culinary Team which she was the Head Cook of Christ In You, Hope of Glory Church; everyone loved her greens and cornbread.

Cecelia had the true gift of love on her, she loved you the way that God intended for us to love. She would always say that she don't know how to hate. A true woman of God. Cecelia was special, one-off a kind.

Cecelia departed life on December 15, 2022, after a brief illness at Rush University Medical Center in Chicago, Illinois.

Cecelia Anderson leaves to cherish her memories, her four children, Willie Jr., (Sonia), Sally Ann (Albert), Carmella (Mike), and Darlisa (Aaron), eight grandchildren, 20 plus great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren, five step children, a host of nieces, nephews, friends and two special friends Apostle Calvin Smith and Jacqueline Johnson.
