

Charles Gadsden Sr.

March 16, 1935 - April 7, 2020

Charles Gadsden was born March 16, 1935 in Chicago, Illinois to the parents of Ira Gadsden and Mary Lee Gadsden. He was the youngest of three children.

Charles graduated from McKinley High School June 25, 1954. He was awarded a certificate of Distinguished Achievement from “The American Legion School” for the possession of high qualities such as honor, courage, and leadership. Charles also served in the US National Guard.

On June 5, 1960, he married the love of his life. From that union a son was born Charles Gadsden Jr. who also became the love of his life.

Charles started to learn the truth from his wife and her friend. He then saw the need to have his own Bible study, and June of 1967, in Madison, Wisconsin, he symbolized his dedication to Jehovah through water baptism. He has been serving as an elder since 1973, and has often auxiliary pioneered. He loved working in the ministry with his son on weekends. He remained a faithful servant of Jehovah until his death on April 7, 2020 (Nisan 14).

Charles loved the work of upholstering furniture, the interior of cars and convertible tops. Aside from theocratic activity, Charles loved car shows and family vacations.

Known as Smily and Papa G, he will truly be missed. He was preceded in death by his father Ira, his mother Mary and brothers Earl and Alfred.

Charles leaves to cherish his memory, his wife of 60 years, Rosie Gadsden; his son Charles Gadsden (Velina); five beautiful granddaughters, Chyna, Cydnei, Chelsea, Celina and Cassidy; one grandson Zachary; and many spiritual sons and daughters and a host of family and friends.
